PROJECT

WHAT IS THE HALO PROJECT?

The Halo Project is an award-winning national charity dedicated to providing cultural support and advocacy to victims of abuse, by offering advice, guidance and support to those suffering domestic and sexual violence including Honour Based Abuse (HBA) Forced Marriage (FM) and Female Genital Mutilation (FGM). We also provide specialist training to professionals, along with advice and guidance.

WHAT ARE HALO HUBS?

Halo Hubs are partnerships between universities, their student population, and the Halo Project Charity, to raise awareness of illegal cultural harms.

The Hubs are run by annually recruited student volunteers who are given the skills and knowledge, through accredited training delivered by Halo, to enable them to design and stage events to raise awareness of illegal cultural harms.

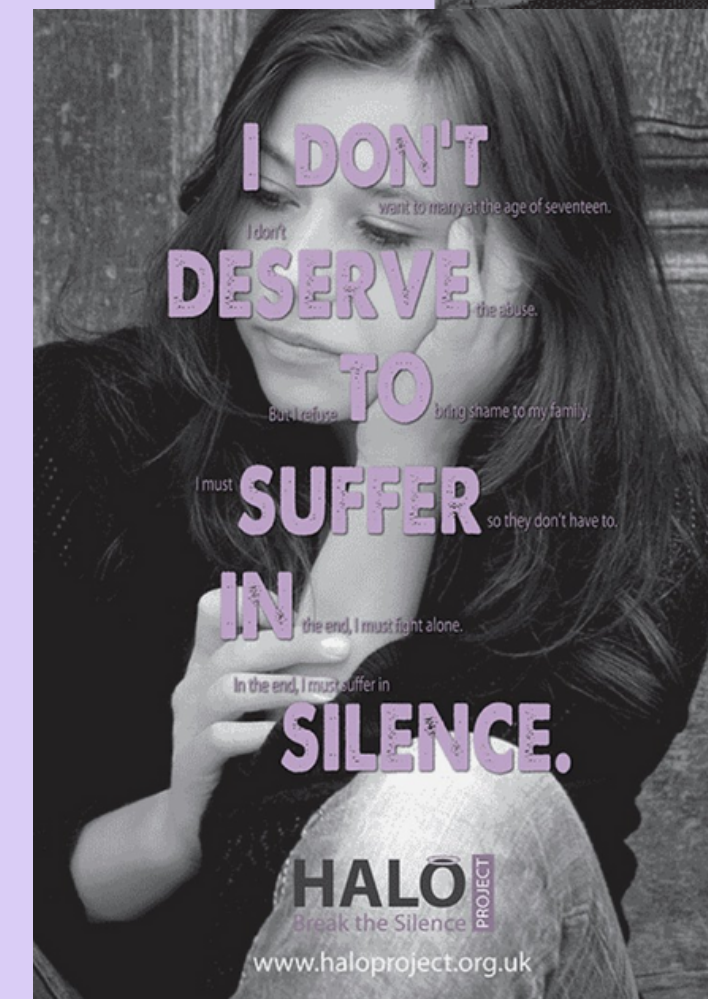

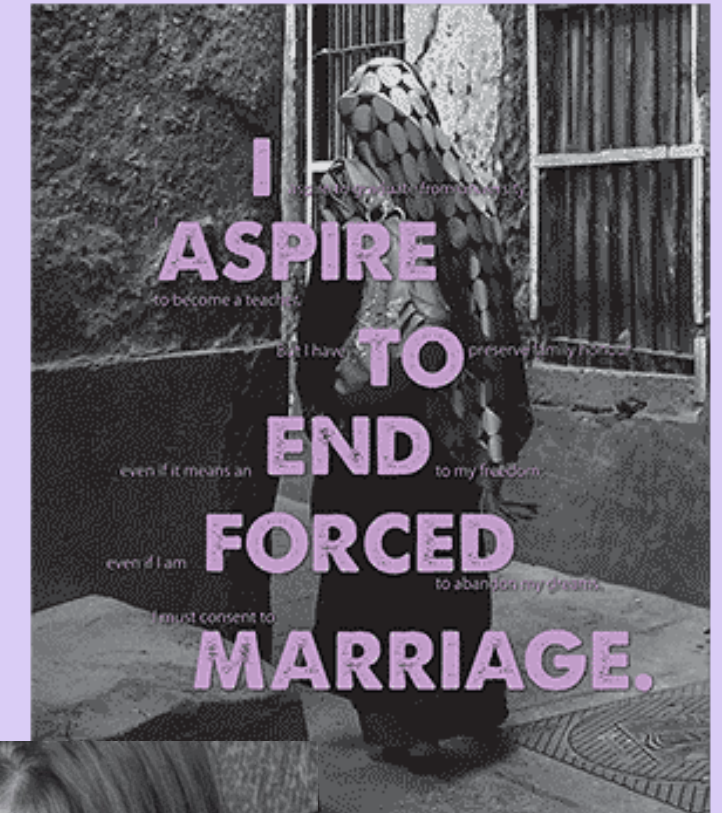

WHAT DO HALO HUBS DO?

Previous Halo Hubs have raised awareness by holding events such as quiz and cinema nights, mock trials and debates, information stands and community outreach.

Halo Hubs signpost agencies and victims to specialist services such as Halo.

They produce original material such as posters and newsletters as well as social media campaigns! We welcome creative and innovative thinking, encouraging students to bring their own ideas each year.
