

For the two people who have inspired not only this entire performance but have guided my throughout my life as well. Christina and Ronald, my Great Grandma and Grandad, I thank you.

A message from the Director...

Welcome to Upper Mansford, a town where the women have had to step up to help with the war effort, by taking on extra jobs and taking in evacuated children. The performance follows four women who's friendship is their strength through the dark times.

This performance does not support the desire for war. This performance does not deny the need for war. This performance shows the lives of the people who were affected when they were trying to keep themselves, their families and the country together.

We cannot ignore the devastation that is in the world but it is our responsibility to help change this. We can change the way we look at things and begin to see the strength in the world.

A Special Thanks to...

The amazing cast who have worked incredibly hard throughout the entire process. My family and friends for the endless support and supply of props! Finally the wonderful people who we took inspiration from to create this performance, we thank you.
